

Daniel Tsai Scholarship for Taiwan Students Enrolling in the USC Price IPPAM Program

For Students Applying for Fall Admission – Priority deadline April 1; Final deadline May 1.

Application Information:

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____

USC ID#: _____ Email: _____

Daytime Phone: _____ Evening Phone: _____

Undergraduate School: _____ Undergraduate major: _____

If you have a master's degree, please include:

Graduate School: _____ Graduate field: _____

A completed scholarship application includes the following, using 12-point Times New Roman font and a separate sheet of paper for each response:

1. Application information (the upper half of this page).
2. An updated resume.
3. Statement of purpose (the same one you submitted for admission).
4. Describe your professional interests in public policy and political activities in Taiwan. List any current or past political, public policy or community involvement activities. (250 words)
5. Explain how receiving the Daniel Tsai Scholarship and earning a degree in IPPAM will assist you in furthering your career goals and enhance your ability to contribute to Taiwan society. (250 words)

Please submit the completed application via email to ippam@usc.edu. For scholarship consideration, the Daniel Tsai Scholarship Application AND the USC Graduate Application for the IPPAM degree must be completed by the final deadline of May 1. To expedite the process, please submit your official undergraduate transcripts to the Price Admissions Office before the deadline. Contact Dr. Joanna Yu at (213) 821-1330 or jcyu@usc.edu if you have questions.

